

The International Neuropsychological Society 46th Annual Meeting

Connecting the Present to the Future

Washington, DC, USA | February 14-17, 2018

INS President: Michael Kopelman

Program Committee Chair: Shawn M. McClintock

CE Program Director: Raul Gonzalez

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Submission Types & Guidelines:

- Individual abstracts may be submitted for consideration in Poster or Paper format, or a Symposium Proposal may be organized by a single designated chair (complete symposium proposals must consist of a summary abstract and no more than four symposium abstracts).
- Before submitting, please review all submission guidelines at ins2018.abstractcentral.com.
- For meeting info, visit the-ins.org/2018-annual.
- INS membership is NOT required to submit (but those who join INS or renew their membership in 2018 will receive registration discounts).
- All submissions must be received by no later than August 1, 2017 at exactly 11:59 PM, U.S. Eastern Time. No late submissions will be accepted.

Keynotes:

Michael Kopelman — INS Presidential Address

Sarah Lisanby

Earl Miller

Miguel Nicolelis

Vilayanur Ramachandran — Kaplan Lecture

Mieke Verfaellie — Birch Lecture

Karalyn Patterson

Invited Symposia:

Barbara Franke, Chair

Genotypes & Phenotypes of ADHD Across the Lifespan

Robert Kane, Chair

Neurocognitive Function in Aerospace and Aeronautics

Morris Moscovitch, Chair

Re-Examining Multiple Trace Theory

April Thames, Chair

Inclusion and Diversity in Clinical Neuropsychology

Laura Cram, Chair

Neuropolitics

CONNECTING THE PRESENT TO THE FUTURE

Submissions Due No Later Than:

Tuesday, August 1, 2017

at precisely 11:59 PM U.S. Eastern Time

Submit at ins2018.abstractcentral.com

Where the World Meets.
the-ins.org