

Call for INS Awards Nominations

Award	Eligible period	Description	INS membership required	Required	Presentation yes/no	Annual/Mid-Year
Early Career	≤ 10 yrs after terminal degree ¹	Independent research contribution with at minimum, a national reputation, and appropriate productivity.	no	1 nomination letter and at least 1 letter of support	Yes (1-hr presentation)	both
Arthur Benton Mid Career	11-24 yrs after terminal degree ¹	Late associate-early full professor level, (growing) international reputation, substantive research impact (eg citations, impact factors)	no	1 nomination letter and 2 letters of support	Yes (1-hr presentation)	both
Pauls Satz Career Mentoring Award	Mid-career to senior	Recognition of an individual whose mentoring/teaching activities have made a profound impact on careers of students in the field of neuropsychology (evidenced by eg accomplishments of the mentor's trainees). The impact of the awardee's mentoring should extend beyond the mentor's home institution.	no	1 nomination letter and 2 letters of support	no	both
Lifetime Award for Research	>25 years	Independent established senior researcher, international reputation, substantive research impact. May or may not be active in her/his career; impact transformative for the field; i.e. by the development of a significant body of knowledge within an area of neuropsychology; promotion of a theory.	no	1 nomination letter and 2 letters of support	Yes (1-hr presentation)	both
Lifetime Award for Education	Senior	Recognition of a senior individual who has furthered the development of the field of neuropsychology beyond their own institution. Methods of educational impact are not limited (books, courses) with (intern)national impact. May or may not be active.	no	1 nomination letter and 2 letters of support	Yes (1-hr presentation)	both
Lifetime Award for Service	Senior	Recognition of an individual who has made a significant contribution to INS through commitment and support of the goals of the society. Criteria for the service to INS award are wide (eg pioneer status in the development of INS, leadership at transformational times). May or may not be active.	yes	1 nomination letter and 2 letters of support	no	both
Distinguished Career Award	At/near end of career	The Distinguished Career Award has been established by the INS Board of Governors to recognize individuals who are at or near the ends of their careers, and who have made major, sustained contributions to the field of neuropsychology as well as to the INS.	yes	1 nomination letter and 2 letters of support	no	both

Application Materials: The application should consist of a nominating letter, a CV plus 1-2 letters of support (see criteria). The nominating statements should be written as relating to the specific award for which the member is being nominated (1-2 page max). Nominating statements should be written in English, letters of support may be written in other languages (although English is preferred). Anyone can nominate and write support letters, but we do not accept self-nominations. Please submit all application materials to ins@the-ins.org

Due Date: Nominations may be submitted at any time. Ideally, awards nominations will be received four months prior to the meeting where the award is to be given (either the Annual or Mid-Year Meeting). For an award to be considered for the INS Mid-Year Meeting, please submit nominations by March 31st. For an award to be considered for the INS Annual Meeting, please submit nominations by September 30th of the prior year. Nominations are typically kept under consideration for future meetings if not awarded at a certain meeting (unless the nomination is not eligible).

¹ Terminal degree can be either a PhD degree, a master or a certified clinical degree (may vary across countries)