

Laird Cermak Award Winners

Lynn Oelke, University of South Florida

Source Memory and Generation Effects in Parkinson's Disease
(Seattle, 2014)

Bonnie van Geldorp, Radboud University Nijmegen, The Netherlands

Relational and Conjunctive Working Memory Binding across Age
(Amsterdam, 2013)

Muireann Irish, Neuroscience Research Australia

Deconstructing Episodic Future Thinking in the Dementias
(Hawaii, 2013)

I-Wen Chen, National Taiwan University and Taipei Medical University

False Memory in Patients with Huntington's Disease
(Oslo, 2012)

Christina Wierenga, University of California, San Diego

Effect of Mild Cognitive Impairment and APOE Genotype on Resting Cerebral Blood Flow and its Association with Cognition
(Montreal, 2012)

Victoria Martin, University of Auckland

Prior Construction of Imagined Events Affects Degree of Core Autobiographical Network Activation
(Auckland, 2011)

Jessica Payne, University of Notre Dame

Sleep Preferentially Benefits Emotional Components of Scenes: Behavioral and Neural Evidence
(Boston, 2011)

Benjamin Hampstead, Emory University, Atlanta, GA

Neural Networks Mediating Cognitive Rehabilitation of Memory in Patients with Mild Cognitive Impairment
(Krakow, 2010)

Nathan Hantke, Marquette University

Event-Related fMRI of Episodic and Semantic Memory in Cognitively Intact Elders: Patterns of Activation as a Function of Risk Factors for Alzheimer's Disease
(Acapulco, 2010)

Pauline Spaan, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Episodic and Semantic Memory Decline in Very Old Age: The Impact of Processing Speed and Executive Functioning
(Helsinki, 2009)

Elizabeth Mitchell, Rosalind Franklin University

The Impact of Anxiety on Verbal Memory in Older Adults
(Atlanta, 2009)

Mariana Benassi-Werke, Universidade Federal de São Paulo

Working Memory for Tones, Words and Pseudowords in Amateurs and Professional Singers and Absolute Pitch Musicians

(Buenos Aires, 2008)

Michael Seidenberg, Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science

Semantic Memory Activation in Individuals at Risk for Developing Alzheimer's Disease: Relationship to Family History and APOE ϵ 4

(Hawaii, 2008)

Sandra Lehmann

Cortical Signature of Amnesia: a High-Resolution Event-Related Potential Study

(Bilbao, 2007)

Yu Ling Chang, University of Florida

Verbal Memory Interference in Temporal Lobe Epilepsy: A Temporal Lobe or Frontal Lobe Problem?

(Portland, 2007)

Klemens Gutbrod, Departement of Neurology and Psychology, University of Bern and Geneva

Memory Outcome after Temporal Lobe Surgery for Epilepsy

(Zurich, 2006)

Roy Kessels, Helmholtz Instituut, Netherlands

Feature Binding in Human Memory: A Comparison of What, Where and When in Young and Older Adults

(Boston, 2006)

Hans J. Markowitsch, Physiological Psychology, University of Bielefeld, Germany

Functional Brain Imaging of Stress-Related Retrograde Amnesia

(Dublin, 2005)

Elizabeth Leritz, Boston VA Healthcare System

Associative Priming, Explicit Memory, and Their Relationship to Hippocampal Volumes in Aging and Mild Cognitive Impairment

(St. Louis, 2005)

Jeffrey Browndyke, Department of Psychiatry, Duke University Medical Center

Knowing What you Know and Don't Know: Event-related fMRI Evidence for Dissociable Temporal and Frontal Lobe Activity Associated with Recognition Memory Response Type

(Baltimore, 2004)

Paula Alhola, University of Turku, Finland

The Effect of Long-Term Estrogen Replacement Therapy on Cognition

(Berlin, 2003)

Carrie McDonald, VA San Diego Healthcare System, San Diego, California

Inhibition in Memory and Attention: The Role of the Frontal Lobes

(Honolulu, 2003)
